For release:

After many years, Norm Christiansen is stepping down as youth sports director at Rochester. We hope that someone has interest in taking over for the next school year. Norm will be happy to answer any questions you may have about the position and help with tasks throughout the year. He can be reached at normyo@myfairpoint.net . Here is a brief description of what the youth sports director does:

Youth Sports Director
Job Description:
Oversee and facilitate all youth sports sponsored by the Rochester Recreation Department which includes soccer, basketball and baseball. Duties include registration of participants, scheduling games and practices, organizing coaches and referees, supplying and updating equipment and uniforms, field preparation and maintaining the youth sports budget. Provides a chance to work closely with players and parents to improve young athlete's skills in sports and in life.